SAM'S NOTES

A Supplement to the Desert Airman

Want a Free Cruise? Check Out Information, Ticket and Travel's Passport to Adventure Promotion!

Information, Tickets and Travel offices offer free all-inclusive vacation cruises, resort stays, airline tickets, cash and more via an in-store and interactive web promotion running through March 31.

Open to all Department of Defense ID card holders 18 and older, the Passport to Adventure promotion is part of ITT's overall awareness strategy that informs people about the recent changes undergone by that Air Force Services activity.

There are two ways to win in the Passport to Adventure promotion. The first is to log on to the www.aftravelonline.com web site, click on the Passport to Adventure link and follow the instructions for creating a personal identification number and submitting the information. The participant is then automatically entered into a drawing for two grand prize cruises with Cunard Cruise Lines aboard the Queen Elizabeth 2.

The second way to participate in the promotion is to stop by any ITT location and pick up a "Passport to Adventure" entry form. The entry form is validated by logging on to the www.aftravelonline.com web site. After following the instructions and submitting the necessary information, participants may win an instant prize and will be automatically entered into the monthly prize drawing.

The first grand prize is a 14-day European cruise vacation package. Winners will fly from New York to Southampton, England for boarding. Stops along the way include Lisbon, Portugal; Gibraltar, United Kingdom; Barcelona, Spain; and Naples, Italy.

The second grand prize is a 12-day "Americas" cruise along the eastern seaboard. Winners will board the ship in New York, cruise the Atlantic Ocean, making stops at Halifax, Nova Scotia; Sydney, NS, Canada; cruise along the Sagueney River; stop at Quebec City, Canada; the Gulf of St. Lawrence, Saint John, Canada;

Newport, Rhode Island and return to New York.

Monthly prizes include 4-three night mini-vacations at Antigua Resorts in the Caribbean, including air transportation from New York or Miami; two Continental round trip tickets to anywhere in the United States Continental flies; and three night stays at AmeriSuites & Wellesley Inns Hotels.

Instant prizes are awarded daily and include $25 MasterCard Gift Certificates and Thrifty Rental Car certificates.

"With the addition of our leisure travel component, we changed our name from 'Information, Tickets and Tours' to 'Information Tickets and Travel,'" said Denise Lanier, Headquarters Air Force ITT program manager.

"All of our 67 locations are now full service travel agencies and offer airline, hotel, cruise, car rental reservations and booking in addition to the tickets and tours we have long been known for." Leisure travel can be arranged by stopping by any ITT office or booked directly through the web site, www.aftravelonline.com.

For more information about the Passport to Adventure promotion or for information about booking any destination, log on to www.aftravelonline.com or stop by I.T.T at the Community Center, Bldg. 4201 or call I.T.T at 228-3700.

"Warm Hug" Days

Help keep children warm this winter. The Community Center will be taking donations of blankets, winter coats and jackets in Bldg. 4201, on November 29th and 30th.

A warm hug tree will also be at the Youth Center in Bldg. 6000 where they will be accepting donations for mittens, gloves, and hats, and other winter items to keep a child warm.

All items will go to children in need of winter items in the Tucson area. For more information call 228-3500.

Youth Center Classes

Take control of your money you've worked so hard for! The Youth Center will be offering free Financial Skills For Life Classes in November and December.

The program is designed for teen's ages 13 to 18. The center will also offer free "Job Ready" Job Application Classes in November and December. The classes teach teens ages 13-18 how to fill out job applications. Sign up by Nov 25th! For class dates and times and to sign up call 228-8844.

Community Center Hosts "Treasures Found" Swap Meet

One person's junk may be another's treasure. The Community Center will host their "Treasures Found" swap meet tomorrow from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Registration ends today at 4 p.m. Cost is only $5 per table. Setup begins at 7 a.m. For more information call 228-3500.
